УСЛОВНЫЕ ОБОЗНАЧЕНИЯ

This legend defines the symbols used throughout the architectural drawings. It includes:

- Structural Elements: Symbols for beams (балки), columns (столбы), walls (стены), and other building components, each with a specific line style and a numerical code.
- Electrical Symbols: Symbols for various electrical components such as switches, outlets, and lighting fixtures.
- Plumbing Symbols: Symbols for pipes, valves, and other plumbing fixtures.
- Other Symbols: Symbols for doors, windows, and other architectural features.

The legend is organized into several columns and rows, with each symbol accompanied by its corresponding name in Russian and a numerical code.
